

Ideas from your Focus Area that could be represented as an artifact:

Your Artifact:

--

Mayan Civilization

Culture
Government
Social Structure
Religion
Technologies
Agricultural Practices
Physical Features/Resources Relied Upon

Aztec Civilization

Culture

Government

Social Structure

Religion

Technologies

Agricultural Practices

Physical Features/Resources Relied Upon

My Class Civilization: _____

My Focus Area: _____

Notes on Focus Area:

Culture:

- Housing?
- Artwork?
- Language spoken?
- Beliefs?

Government:

- Monarchy-Queen/King?
- Dictatorship-One ruler who rules how they want?
- Democracy-People have a say?

Social Structure:

- Rankings amongst the people?
- Classes- Lower, middle, upper?

Religion:

- Origin story?
- Organized belief system-Christian, Jewish, Muslim?
- Gods?
- Afterlife?

Technologies:

- Weapons?
- Tools?
- Money Systems?
- Communication systems-written language or symbols?
- Calendars-ways of tracking time, days, etc?
- Architectural Systems?

Agricultural Practices:

- Products/Livestock Produced?
- Tools?
- Farming Methods?
- Calendar?

Physical Features/Resources:

- Mountains, Plains, Ocean, Rivers
- Coal, Soil, Fish, Fresh Water?

Inca Civilization

Culture
Government
Social Structure
Religion
Technologies
Agricultural Practices
Physical Features/Resources Relied Upon

Mississippian Civilization

Culture

Government

Social Structure

Religion

Technologies

Agricultural Practices

Physical Features/Resources Relied Upon

Early Civilizations of the Western Hemisphere

Target Concepts:

How did early civilizations influence/impact the modern world?

How does where you live affect how you live?